

Postpartum Support

UCSF offers a variety of services and resources once you've delivered your baby.

We understand there is a transition period that comes with being a new parent. UCSF offers a variety of support services to help.

Resources & services for your new family

- Afterglow-Mothers attend a group with their babies and share experiences
- Infant CPR/Infant Massage-Newborns: Also available after delivery call for dates
- MILK: Mother & Infant Lactation Kooperative Support Group for breastfeeding moms
- Women's Health Resource Center: Lactation supplies, breastpump rentals and more
- Pumping & Returning to Work: Gain insight about pumping and returning to work

Contact the Women's Health Resource Center at Mount Zion, (415) 353-2667 and Mission Bay, (415) 514-2670 or to sign up, visit whrc.ucsf.edu

- Pregnancy & Postpartum Mood Assessment Clinic: Support tailored to each individual, (415) 353-2566
- Lactation Consultations: 1-on-1 appointments for patients who have delivered at UCSF, (415) 353-2566
- UCSF Lactation Accomodation Program: Manages lactation room at UCSF campus, (415) 502-3154